On the other hand Turkey has urged United Nations and Human Rights Commission to act urgently in burning situation in India and if the situation in India does not normalise than the AGCC May and must call on emergency meeting of all 57 countries of Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) and the AGCC have given dire warnings that they may deport all expatriate Hindu population back to India.

The Chairman Raja Sikander Khan applauded the AGCC countries for their bold and United stand against this new BJP's menace legislation which is growing faster than any virus in India.
The Chief Raja Sikander also condemned the growing attacks on Muslims in India and requested the international community, especially the UN and the Human Rights Council to take necessary measures in this regard and demanded that India must ensure the safety, security and wellbeing of the Muslim community, protect the way of life of its citizens, and bring perpetrators of acts of violence to justice.

He also expressed deep concern over recent public calls for the genocide of Muslims in Haridwar in India's Uttarakhand state and condemned reported incidents of harassment of Muslim women on social media, as well as the banning of female Muslim students wearing the hijab.

The continued attacks on Muslims and their places of worship, the recent trend of anti-Muslim legislation in different states and rising incidents of violence against Muslims are indicative of the growing trend of Islamophobia,
